AIR-INDIA INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION EMPLOYEES' PASSAGE REGULATIONS, 1957
AIR-INDIA INTERNATIONAL

NOTIFICATIONS

With reference to the Government of India, Ministry of Transport and Communications Notification No. 12-CA(1)/57 dated the 11th November 1957, Shri R. Doraiswamy, I.A.S., has been appointed as Chief Administrative Officer in the Air-India International Corporation, with effect from the forenoon of the 21st August 1957, and until further orders.

Whereas it is necessary to consolidate and amend the Air India International Employees' Passage Regulations, 1955, the Corporation, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 45 of the Air Corporations Act, 1953, hereby makes, with the previous approval of the Central Government, the following Regulations under Sub-section (1) and Clause (c) of Sub-section (2) of that Section for the grant of air passages to its employees for travel on its air services otherwise than on duty, namely:—

1. Short Title and Commencement—These Regulations may be called the Air India International Corporation Employees' Passage Regulations, 1957, and shall be deemed to have come into force retrospectively from 1st April 1957

2. Definitions—In these Regulations,

- (i) "Employee" means a permanent employee who has been confirmed in the service of the Corporation and has completed 12 months' service from the date of his appointment;
- (ii) "Family" means the employee, his wife, children and parents wholly dependent on the employee, and such other relatives of the employee whom the General Manager may in each individual case, include on compassionate grounds;
- (iii) "Competent authority" means the Chairman, General Manager and any other officer of the Corporation to whom powers are delegated by the Corporation in this behalf.

3. Conditions of Grant—The grant of passages under these Regulations shall always be subject to the following general conditions:—

- (a) The passages cannot be claimed by employees as of right; they are allowed at the convenience of the Corporation and are sanctioned at the discretion of competent authority. The passages are ordinarily non-cumulative.
- (b) A free passage is non-transferable. A concessional passage may, however, be transferred to the family of the employees.
- (c) A person travelling under these Regulations shall be in possession of a valid certificate, form card or ticket which must be produced for inspection on demand by the officials of the Corporation.
- (d) An employee travelling under these Regulations shall obtain cover under Accident Insurance in the manner and for the amount prescribed by competent authority.

(e) Travel under these Regulations shall be permitted subject to load and space being available in the aircraft after all paying traffic is accommodated, whether at the station of emplanement or at intermediate stations.

(f) The facilities permissible hereunder may be further limited by competent authority by issue of administrative orders and such orders shall have the same effect as these Regulations.

4. Free and Concessional Passages—(1) An employee may, in a calendar year, be allowed one free passage each for himself and his wife and 3 concessional passages for travel in the Corporation's aircraft from his headquarters to any station on any one of the following regional routes, namely:—

- (a) India-United Kingdom-India,
- (b) India-East Africa-India,
- (c) India-Japan-India,
- (d) India-Australia-India,
- (e) Such other routes as may be added.

(2) The concessional passages for travel within and outside India shall be charged to the employees respectively at 25 per cent and 10 per cent of the applicable scheduled fare prescribed in the Corporation's Tariffs for the time being in force

5. Conjunction Passages—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4, an employee may be allowed free and/or concessional passages, as may be admissible, on any two of the regional routes in conjunction once in two calendar years in lieu of corresponding passages admissible in those years.

(2) An employee, who on 31st July 1953, had completed 12 months' continuous service with Air-India Ltd., may, in lieu of the free passages admissible under sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 4, be given once in two calendar years one free return passage by rail to a railway station nearest to his native place, but not beyond Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Cochin, Coimbatore, Tiruchirapalli, and Trivandrum by the class of accommodation to which he would be entitled were he on duty, as far as possible in conjunction with free air passages.

Explanation: For the purpose of this sub-regulation the native place of the employee as registered on his personnel record shall be deemed to be final and binding.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (b) of Regulation 3 of these Regulations, the expression "once in two calendar years" occurring in sub-regulations (1) and (2) above, shall be deemed to mean the year in which such passages in conjunction are granted and the preceding year, but only to the extent that the free and/or concessional passages were not utilised during such preceding year.

6. Passages to staff in foreign stations—In addition to the free and concessional passages which may be allowed under Regulation 4, the family of an employee posted at a foreign station may, once in two calendar years, be allowed not more than five free return passages, from his headquarters to a station on any regional route of the Corporation specified by the employee to be his home country.

7. Class of Travel—All employees and their families travelling in the Corporation's aircraft under these Regulations shall ordinarily travel in the Tourist Class, but the General Manager may by general or special order and on such terms as he may deem appropriate, permit any employee or class of employees and their families to travel in the First Class.

8. Baggage Allowance—A person to whom a free or concessional passage is issued under these Regulations shall be entitled to a free baggage allowance not exceeding 30 lbs., in addition to the baggage allowance admissible to him under the tariffs.

9. Risk of Travel—(1) A person travelling under these Regulations shall do so entirely at his own risk and shall be governed by the terms and conditions subject to which tickets are issued and such terms and conditions shall be binding on him, his heirs and legal representatives and on all other persons claiming or purporting to claim through or under him or them.

(2) A person travelling under these Regulations and/or his baggage is/are liable to be off-loaded at any intermediate station on the route in order to accommodate paying traffic, and all expenses consequent upon such off-loading shall be borne by him.

10. Special Concessions—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations the competent authority may, on compassionate grounds, grant an employee free and/or concessional passages debitable to his future account: Provided that in granting such passages, due account shall be taken of all free or concessional passages which remain unutilised.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (ii) of regulation 2 of these Regulations, the General Manager shall have power to waive the limitation as to age contained in the said clause, in the case of unmarried daughters of the Corporation's employees and to relax the said limitation upto an age not above 23 years in the case of sons who are engaged in an educational course: Provided that all passages granted or to be granted pursuant to this authority be subject to all applicable provisions of the said Regulations and shall be debitable to the number of passages normally admissible to the employees hereunder, and shall be reported to the Board.

(3) A statement showing all passages granted during each quarter under sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above, shall be placed at a meeting of the Corporation held in the subsequent quarter.

11. Penalty for Unauthorised use of free or concessional passages—Any unauthorised use of the passage granted under these Regulations or any breach of these Regulations is liable to be construed as a misconduct on the part of the employee and may entail a permanent withdrawal of these concessions from him.

12. Interpretation etc.—The Chairman and the General Manager shall have power to interpret, and to issue orders for the due and proper implementation of, these Regulations, and all such interpretations or orders given by either of them shall, to the extent that they are not contrary to or inconsistent with these Regulations, be final and binding on the employee.

13. Cancellation—The Air-India International Employees' Passage Regulations, 1953, are hereby cancelled.

14. Ratification—All free and/or concessional passages granted by competent authority prior to the date on which these Regulations come into force shall, to the extent that they are not contrary hereto be deemed to have been ratified.

AIR-INDIA INTERNATIONAL EMPLOYEES' PROVIDENT FUND REGULATIONS, 1954

NOTIFICATION

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 45 of the Air Corporation Act, 1953 (27 of 1953) the Air-India International Corporation, with the previous approval of the Central Government, hereby makes the following amendments in the Air-India International Employees Provident Fund Regulations, 1954 namely:—

1. In clause (b) of regulation 2 the word "pay" shall be substituted for the word "wages".
2. The following clause (n) shall be added at the end of regulation 2:—
"(n) 'Financial Year' means the year commencing on the first day of April."
3. The word 'President' shall be substituted for the word 'Chairman' occurring in clause (a) of regulation 3(1) and in all other regulations wherever it occurs with reference to the Board of Trustees.
4. The following sub-regulation (3) shall be added to regulation 3:—
"(3) The Chairman of the Corporation may fill up casual vacancies created by the death or resignation of a member or other causes."

5. In sub-regulation (1) of the regulation 11, the words "whom the Trustees may appoint" shall be deleted and the word "appointed" shall be substituted for the words so deleted.

6. The following sub-regulation (1) shall be substituted for the existing sub-regulation (1) of regulation 19:—

"(1) No withdrawal by a member of the Provident Fund subscription standing to his credit shall be allowed by the Board of Trustees except in the following circumstances:—"

7. For the existing clause (iii) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 19 the following clause (iii) shall be substituted:—

"(iii) To meet expenditure on building or purchasing a house or a site for a house or land provided that such house or site or land is assigned to the Trustees of the Fund: Provided that in the case of an employee whose income under the head "salaries" does not exceed Rs. 3600 per annum, the Trustees of the Fund may, in their discretion, waive the condition that such house or site shall be assigned to them and instead require a condition that the employee shall not encumber or alienate the property in any manner."

8. The following explanations shall be added at the end of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 19:—

"Explanation: For the purpose of this sub-regulation (1) "family" means any of the following persons who are wholly dependent on the employee namely: the employee's wife, legitimate children, step-children, parents, sisters and minor brothers."

9. The following sub-regulations (4) and (5) shall be added to Regulation 19:—

"(4) The employer shall deduct such instalments from the employees' salary and pay them to the Trustees. This deduction shall commence from the second monthly payment made after the withdrawal.

(5) A second withdrawal shall not be permitted until the amount of the first withdrawal if payable under sub-regulation (3) has been fully repaid together with interest thereon."

10. In clause (i) of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 the word "five" shall be substituted for the word "three".

11. The words "that is to say" occurring in sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 shall be deleted.

12. Clause (ii) of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 shall be deleted and the following new clause (ii) shall be substituted therefor:—

"(ii) A member shall be entitled to the full share of the employer's contribution together with interest thereon if the period of membership of the fund is five years or more."

13. Clauses (iii) and (iv) of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 shall be deleted.

14. The Note under sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 shall be deleted and the following note shall be substituted therefor:—

"Note—In computing the period of membership of the Fund under this sub-regulation there shall be included any period of membership of the Provident Fund of (i) any of the 'existing air companies' ending with the enforcement of these Regulations during which the person concerned was a member of the Provident Fund of that air company from which he was transferred to the rolls of the Corporation; (ii) Indian Airlines Corporation immediately before his taking up an employment in the Corporation."

15. Sub-regulation (1) of regulation 22 shall be deleted and the following new sub-regulation (1) shall be substituted therefor:—

"(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation 20, if a member is dismissed for serious and/or wilful misconduct, the Corporation may send intimation thereof to the Board and the Board shall have powers to forfeit the employer's contribution together with interest thereon in respect of the entire service of the employee or for such shorter period as may be decided by the authority competent to dismiss the employee: Provided that the member concerned shall be asked to show cause why the forfeiture shall not be made and shall be afforded an opportunity to make representation which shall be duly considered before making the forfeiture."
